TECHNICAL SKILLS

OS	macOS, Windows
MS Office	Excel, Word, PPT
Statistical Software	R, SPSS, MPlus
Eye-Tracking Software	SMI, Tobii Studio
Experiment and Survey Tools	Psytoolkit, Qualtrics, Unipark, LimeSurvey
Methodological Expertise	RCTs, Quasi-Experiments, DiD, Longitudinal Studies, Correlational Research

LANGUAGE SKILLS

---

GERMAN	Native
ENGLISH	Proficiency (C2)
FRENCH	Advanced (C1)

---

GLOBAL RESEARCH

- 2021, 2022: Visiting Researcher at TUM, Munich; "ImpleyCit" project on eye movements and cultural comparisons
- 2015, 2016: Research Stay at NTNU, Taipei; Studied PISA responses using eye-tracking

---

FUNDING & GRANTS

Doctoral Fellowship (2019- 2023)

- Awarded by the École Doctorale « Cognition, Comportements, Conduites Humaines » (ED 261), Université Paris Cité
- Supported doctoral research in social psychology focused on educational inequalities

ImpleyCit Project (2020 - 2022)

- "Exploring the Connection between Implicit Eye Movement Measures and Explicit Self-Report Responses: A Cross-Cultural Study"
- Funded by BayFrance, promoting Franco-Bavarian academic collaborations in research and education
- Grant Amount: €4,525

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE - CONTINUED

12/2019
02/2019

WORK IN PROGRESS

---

Müller, F., Jury, M., & Aelenei, C. (2025, June 18). When accommodations are not enough: A multi-study examination of teacher bias toward students with special educational needs across student gender [Preprint]. PsyArXiv. https://doi.org/10.31234/osf.io/fx7jc\_v1

Description:

- Examines how the intersection of students' gender and special educational needs (SEN) status influences teachers' perceptions of competence and grading, across three experimental studies.
- Uncovers systematic biases in teacher evaluations of students with SEN to inform strategies for equitable assessment practices and promote inclusivity through targeted teacher training programs.

Müller, F., Goudeau, S., Aelenei, C., & Sanitioso, R. B. (in progress). Beyond degrees: Navigating cultural mismatch and social-class identity in higher education across national contexts. Manuscript in preparation, Université Paris Cité, France.

Description:

- Explores the impact of cultural mismatch on working-class students' academic trajectories through correlational, longitudinal, and experimental studies across France and Germany.
- Highlights adaptation strategies used by high-performing working-class students, with implications for educational policy and support systems in higher education.

Jury, M., Stanczak, A., Huron, C., Müller, F., Aelenei, C., & Sireci, S. (2025, July 11). Perceived fairness of exam accommodations for students with special educational needs [Preprint]. PsyArXiv. https://doi.org/10.31219/osf.io/fcnz4\_v1

Description:

- Investigates how students and teachers perceive the fairness of various exam accommodations (e.g., extra time, scribes, exemptions) for students with SEN, drawing on a meta-analysis of experimental data and large-scale surveys.
- Highlights how meritocratic beliefs and accommodation types influence judgments of fairness, with implications for inclusive assessment practices.

Sälzer, C., Denk, A., Müller, F., & Kholti, M. (in revision). Assessing socio-emotional learning: Perspectives on educational goals at the individual and group level. In G. T. L. Brown & L. R. Harris (Eds.), Handbook of human and social conditions in assessment (2nd ed.). Routledge.

Description:

- Reviews theoretical models and assessment approaches for social-emotional learning (SEL) within schools.
- Highlights SEL's role in improving student outcomes and supporting diverse educational needs through inclusive strategies.
